

How can you allow the airing of the John Kerry documentary, with its politically motivated point of view, to air so close to election. It is a commercial for Bush, and if it is aired, Kerry should be allowed to air an anti-Bush documentary of the same length on the same stations. This is illegal, immoral and politics at its dirtiest!